

Dear aunt Mary

I have looked in vain for Anne's lost letter, but can find nothing of it. The last one being directed to me I took special care of, & send it. I hope she is better, but I don't know what to think of her, excepting that I hardly think she will come till the end of the term. I have been working very hard to day arranging and packing. I can't tell what day next week I shall come, it will depend upon the quantity of work I shall have to do, for Warren's sickness has put all my arrangements behindhand I shall come as soon as I possibly can. I want to hear how you are very much & how this cold weather agrees with you. Have you received a letter which I gave to Quincy?

Lucia & Emma will tell you what little has been, & is going on.
Lucia was at our meeting. The rooms are to be given up, that is the anti slavery rooms. 40.
It costs a great deal of money &
there are no adequate returns.
Caroline & I are to go this afternoon to a meeting at Mrs.
Southwick's to arrange about getting the petitions. I shall see you very soon, I hope by Tuesday night, that is if you are not gone to Duxbury. I don't know what Caroline's first move will be, I hardly think she knows herself in haste & with best love to all
I am your most affectionate
A Weston.

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher.]

Ms. A. 9. 2. 16. 39 B

Debra Mason

Miss Mary Weston
Weymouth
Mrs Weston Mass